Reduce fraud risk by getting rid of junk mail

Putting a stop to the junk mail being sent to your older adult's house is essential for reducing their fraud risk. It also reduces the risk that someone with early dementia would repeatedly donate to multiple charities, sign up for many credit cards, or spend an excessive amount on catalog purchases.

4 Options for Getting Rid of Junk Mail

1. DMAChoice:

The junk mail expert says this is the #1 way to stop junk mail and that most people will only need to complete this form. Registering with DMAChoice stops mail from companies that your older adult has never purchased from or donated to. You could use the regular form or the one specifically for caregivers.

2. National Do Not Mail List

This is another company you can use to opt-out from junk mail. It's not the same as DMAChoice so you could register with both organizations.

3. Opt-Out Pre-Screen (1-888-5-OPT-OUT)

This company stops credit card offers. FYI: They will ask for a Social Security Number. The junk mail expert says this is legitimate because that's the way credit bureaus identify people.

4. InfoCision

This is a telemarketing company, but they also manage mailing lists for their clients. Call (330) 668-1400 or email infocision@infocision.com to request removal from their lists. This can also help reduce those relentless telemarketing phone calls.

Note: Don't be discouraged if the junk mail doesn't stop instantly. Most companies prepare their mailings months ahead of time, so it will take about 3 months to see a reduction.
